CHECK-IN

Mixing a custom concoction at The Modern's Blending Bar.

Game, Set, Beach

Tennis enthusiasts have the advantage in the Dominican Republic at Casa de Campo's La Terraza Tennis Center, which recently partnered with the top-ranked Jim Courier Tennis program. Former NCAA coach José Vaca Bustamante heads a team of 25 pros, who offer individual and group lessons on the center's 13 Har-Tru courts. Follow your match with a well-deserved piña colada on the 185-room resort's private Minitas Beach. Doubles from $293; Virtuoso amenities include breakfast daily and a $200 spa credit.

BAR ESSENTIALS

Bellying up to the bar takes on a different meaning at The Modern Honolulu, home to the new holistic Lather Spa. The organic skin-care line's debut spa features a Blending Bar, where guests of the 353-room Hawaiian hotel can customize their own massage oil from an array of 15 sustainably sourced essential oils. Relax to the scent of lemongrass, passion fruit, coconut, or vanilla; afterward, take home a complimentary bottle. Doubles from $309; Virtuoso amenities include breakfast daily and a $100 hotel credit.

TIP

"If your feet and legs need some TLC, book the spa's reflexology treatment, tailored to guests' specific issues. At night, start with a cocktail at The Study (bookshelves in The Modern's lobby rotate open at 5 PM to reveal the hidden room), then head to the bar at Morimoto Waikiki restaurant, where the bartender can customize drinks according to what flavors you enjoy."

RUM SCRUM

One highlight of the recently renovated Shangri-La's Le Touessrok Resort & Spa, Mauritius: its tiki-chic Segá Bar, stocked with locally made rums. Sip a Baka (coconut rum, peach liqueur, coconut ice cream, and sparkling wine) while lounging on the bar's private island, just offshore from the 200-room resort. Doubles from $462; Virtuoso amenities include breakfast daily and a 50-minute massage for two.
